18TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

I am the bread of life

whoever comes to me will never hunger, and whoever believes in me will never thirst.

JOHN 6:35

PASTOR'S CORNER

“Believe in the one God has sent.”

-- John 6:24-35

Despite God's faithful presence and providing for His people, in every situation they continue to complain. It seems they are more faithful to grumbling and complaining than to believing and trusting. Perhaps at times, we are guilty of ever doubting God, rather than trusting. Faith reminds us that God is most present in those struggling and painful situations in life. The God who was with us in the past is very present in the here and now, and will be in the future.

As Jesus says, the greatest work of God we can perform is “to believe in the one He sent.” In the poem, “Footprints in the Sand” by Mary Powers, she pictures a man walking with the Lord on a beach. In each scene, he sees two sets of footprints. However, in the most troubling times of his life, he sees only one set of footprints. “Where were you then?” he complained to God. The Lord answered, “In the troubling times, when you saw only one set of footprints, it was then I was carrying you!”

Let us be ever confident that in all our journeys through life, especially those that are more difficult, that the Lord, the Bread of Life, will carry us to safer shores.

God bless,
Father Murray

“When you saw only one set of footprints, it was then that I carried you.”

UPDATE TO THE ST. HILARY CAPITAL CAMPAIGN

Now that June is over, we are now completing our two-year Capital Campaign. As previously noted, our original goal was $350,000. The generosity of our parishioners has been overwhelming. A total of $427,176.25 had been pledged. Of that amount, we have collected and deposited $402,773. Of the 231 families who have pledged, 202 families are paid in full. All of our projects have been completed, and all bills are now paid, thanks to you! I hope you enjoy our new air conditioning system in the Church. Our children and teachers kept cool with our brand new school air conditioning system. Our new lighting in the parking lot and the new beautiful side Church doors have been a most welcome addition as well. Thank you to those who are still paying toward their pledge. So, as we are in the completion stage of our Campaign, I remain most grateful for your generosity. God's grace & peace, Fr. Murray

 Please note the weekend Masses all through the year are Sat. Vigil at 5pm and Sundays at 8:30am and 10:30am *****

What is the Assumption?

The first name of this solemnity was the Feast of Mary, Mother of God. Later, its name in the East carried over, the Dormition (or Falling Asleep) of Mary. In the West, it became known as the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary. This solemnity celebrates the fact that Mary's Assumption is "a pledge of the future participation of the members of the mystical Body of Christ in the paschal glory of the Risen Christ." It shows that the Lord "reserves a munificent reward for his humble Servant because of her faithful cooperation with the divine plan, which is a destiny of fullness, happiness, glorification of her immaculate soul, her virginal body, perfect configuration to her Risen Son" (Directory, no. 180). The Mass has a proper vigil, and the solemnity replaces the Mass of the day when it occurs on a Sunday in Ordinary Time. What does this all mean? On November 1, 1950, Pope Pius XII declared the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary, which the Church celebrates every year on August 15. Simply put, the dogma of the Assumption states that at the end of her life, the Blessed Virgin Mary was taken, body and soul, into Heaven. While this event isn't reflected in Sacred Scripture, it is clearly part of the Church's earliest observance.

OCIA (Order of Christian Initiation of Adults)
St. Hilary of Poitiers Parish

OCIA, or Order of Christian Initiation of Adults, is the process by which people who are interested in learning about the Catholic Faith can attend classes and have the opportunity to become members of the Catholic Church.

OCIA is for adults who:

- Are interested in learning about the Catholic Faith
- Have never been baptized
- Have been baptized in another Christian faith and are interested in the Catholic faith
- Are baptized Catholics who have not yet received the Sacraments of First Communion and Confirmation
- Are married to a Catholic and attend Mass, and would like to take the next steps to become a member of the Catholic Church

OCIA is a spiritual formation process beginning in October and ending with initiation in the Catholic Church at the Easter Vigil. OCIA classes are taught by Father Murray and are held every Monday evening from 7:00-8:30pm at the rectory. These classes are for anyone with interest, no matter what your current denomination. Please encourage your friends and neighbors with interest in Catholicism, too! If you are interested in attending and/or would like more info, please contact Father Murray at 215-884-3252, or email sthilaryrydal@gmail.com. Thank you.

MISSION CO-OP

On the weekend of August 17/18, we will be visited by Father Tanoh Koffi, a missionary who belongs to the Yarumal Mission Society. He is a missionary priest who is serving the people of God in Kenya-Africa. He is originally from Burkina Faso in West Africa. The goal of the Yarumal Mission Society, founded 97 years ago, is to witness the Gospel of Jesus Christ among people and cultures where the Gospel is not yet fully preached. They are present in Bolivia, Cambodia, Kenya, Ecuador, and Panama, to name a few. In order to carry out their pastoral programs and social projects, the missionaries depend very much on the generosity from parishes they visit. Our support for Father Tanoh and his missions is a sign that reminds us of our baptismal vocation - we are all missionaries of Christ. Please consider being as generous as possible. (You can use the Mission Coop envelopes in the packets you receive in the mail any week in August, or you can contribute to the second collection on Aug. 17/18.) Thank you for your consideration!

The Transfiguration of the Lord August 6, 2024

In Year B, the reading for the Transfiguration comes from Mark's gospel. (The Transfiguration also appears in the other two synoptic gospels, Matthew and Luke.) In Mark, Jesus takes Peter, James, and John up a high mountain, apart from other apostles and disciples. There, Jesus is transfigured (changed in form and appearance) and appears in dazzling white clothes. Elijah, the great prophet, and Moses, through whom the Israelites were given the law, appear with Jesus. A cloud appears, overshadowing them, and a voice states, "This is my beloved Son. Listen to him." Jesus charges the three to not share with anyone what they had seen "except when the Son of Man had risen from the dead." They keep their experience to themselves, pondering what Jesus meant by rising from the dead.

How are we to understand the Transfiguration? The story of the Transfiguration is also proclaimed on the second Sunday of Lent - a key part of Jesus' journey towards the Cross. The Catechism of the Catholic Church draws parallels between Jesus' Baptism and the Transfiguration. Jesus is baptized at the start of his public ministry. His baptism proclaims the mystery of our first regeneration - we die and rise again with Christ. The "Transfiguration is the sacrament of the second regeneration": our own Resurrection (St. Thomas Aquinas, STh III, 45, 4, ad 2). From now on we share in the Lord's Resurrection through the Spirit who acts in the sacraments of the Body of Christ.

The Transfiguration gives us a foretaste of Christ's glorious coming, when he "will change our lowly body to be like his glorious body (Phil 3:21)" (Catechism of the Catholic Church, no. 556). During the Prayer after Communion, we pray that God might "transform us into the likeness of your [his] Son, / whose radiant splendor you willed to make manifest / in his glorious Transfiguration." The Collect, or opening prayer, tells us that the mystery of the Transfiguration "prefigures our full adoption to sonship." The Transfiguration, initially revealed to Peter, James, and John, reveals to all of us a taste of what is yet to come.

The Transfiguration is the fourth of the Luminous Mysteries of the Rosary.

BUILD UP THE KINGDOM OF GOD

As followers of Jesus, we're each called to take our place in the Kingdom of God and help build it up. Consider these suggestions to do your part:

- * Find your gifts... What special gifts do you possess? In addition to talents and skills, these can include wisdom from life experience or a particularly deep faith. Discern your gifts and ask God where He wants you to use them.
- * Cultivate gratitude... Write down everything for which you are grateful in a "blessings list". Try to review it and add to it regularly, especially when tempted to jealousy or discouragement. Praise and thank God daily for whatever is on your list.
- * Practice humility... St. Thomas Aquinas said, "Humility means seeing ourselves as God sees us; knowing every good we have comes from Him as pure gift." Let others have the best place, the biggest piece of cake, the last word. Imitate Him who is "gentle and humble of heart." (Matthew 11:29)
- * Be ready to serve... Any act of service can build up your parish, neighborhood, or community. Small or great, everyone can contribute something. Give of yourself.

* Strive for the higher gifts... Jesus asked every one of us to love God and each other. Without love, St. Paul said, "I gain nothing." (1 Corinthians 13:3) If you have true charity, you're on the right track.
